

SHANNON BRINIAS

PROFILE

An award-winning television journalist, radio personality, and broadcast news producer.

Highly regarded for outstanding contributions in community service as an influential communicator and public speaker.

Recognition and accomplishments:

- Four-time CBA winner & eight-time Emmy nominee for reporting & anchoring.
- 2012 Gracie (Alliance for Women in Media).
- 2011 Women of Influence (Colorado Springs Business Journal).

CONTACT

PHONE:
719-649-8789

EMAIL:
shannon.brinias@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Pacific Lutheran University, Tacoma, WA
Bachelor of Arts | Communications

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

KRDO-TV/AM/FM/KRDO.com, Colorado Springs, CO
Morning News Anchor (TV & Radio)/Producer | 2017 to Present
Deliver up-to-the-minute coverage on breaking news, weather, and traffic weekdays, focused on Southern Colorado.

State of California (Bay-Area Region), Oakland, CA
Public Information Officer | 2015 to /2017
Wrote and edited informative new releases and appeared in awareness videos representing Caltrans & State Fund agencies.

KOVR-TV, Sacramento, CA
Main Evening News Anchor | 2012 to 2015
Created & delivered compelling content and conducted live interviews for an award-winning station.

KKTV, Colorado Springs, CO
Main News Anchor | 2006 to 2012
Provided nightly news coverage under tight deadlines in supervisory role with a talented team of writers, reporters, and producers.

KIRO-TV, Seattle, WA
Reporter/Fill-In News Anchor | 2004 to 2006

KMGH-TV, Denver, CO
Weekend Anchor | 2001 to 2004

SKILLS

Creative Writing | Crisis Communications | Microsoft Office | Avid Edit
Web Content Management | Adobe Creative Suites | iNews | ENPS
Proofreading | Videography | Media Relations | Producing